From the makers of Black Mirror and Silent Hill comes a horror adventure for good kids where space is the limit. With the help of a new friend you're sent into space, where it turns out the Earth is nothing but a small blue dot. Trapped in a ruined satellite, you must overcome your fear, find your way to the power core and survive until help arrives. The stakes are high. Who'll break first? A high-quality soundtrack and graphics should keep even the kids entertained. Features:- A thrilling new horror adventure for kids- 80 tracks - 80 minutes of pure horror- Original story by Lance Parkin- A story full of surprises and twists- Colored graphics for all ages- Audio and soundtrack to really set the mood- In-game puzzles and interactive environments- A VR mode is available for those of you that have your Oculus Rift, HTC Vive, or Windows Mixed Reality (or if you own an Xbox Game Pad)- The game will work without a VR, just to deliver the full experience but the VR mode works best- Save points throughout the game and a virtual escape route- A unique immersive soundtrack that keeps the atmosphere dark and scary and are played at times during the game- The world that we have created is very unique; each kid would have their own story for what happened to them there.  Please note that the game is fully optimized for Windows 10. However, if you are on Mac or Linux, we can't guarantee that the game will work on your system. The game has no ads, no micro-transactions and no in-app purchases. You can find all available updates at May good things come to all of you. Stuck on this game? What's new in Textreme 2:

by Lissa Shepard The sacred lands are the only places left in the world with an ever-living spirit. And there are many a King and Queen, Lord and lady, Master and servant that have died trying to own something as sacred as they are. Those on the wrong side of that will seek to destroy the forest and banish it to the wayside—everyone's favorite altar to humanity's bigotry, hoarded vials of mercy and supposed beliefs. And so the battle rages, the forest's swarmed by those who wish to exterminate a life and, by default, the forest that we stand on. Faith is becoming a thing of the past and the gods are forgotten. Three Majesties is the story of the battles of Zakareno, Melfarn and Holyrock. Shephard has crafted a fractured world, rich in nuance and place. A reflection of his native heart, he has created worlds with many lands and many peoples for readers of all races and faiths to enjoy and come to believe in what was. The description from Goodreads: It is twenty four years since the Meridian Wars, when the races of Aryth met and fell in bloody battle. Yet the imbalances of power between the Great Powers and the Kingdoms have continued, and tensions between them linger. The fighting between Darreh and the River Kingdom of Kendry has been settled, but memories of the war remain. And the Marrows, unscathed in the battles across the Meridian Wars, are the oldest living race—and the most powerful. In a merging of two of the greatest stories of all time, the Pathfinder Adventure Path: Eye of the Great One, The Black Prism and the Emperor and the Eye of the Great One start at the beginning of the wars and follow every day as the struggles and true stories of heroism and hardship unfold. With some of the most requested characters in the Adventure Path series, The Black Prism and his allies explore a world of contrasts and formidable adversaries. However, tensions between The Great Powers and their principal allies are rising. The Marrows thrive in the unclaimed wilds of Aryth, forming their own civilization and living with minimal interference from the other races. Despite the various factions of the Empire, most of the nobles themselves remain in contact with the Marrows, as they find strength in the mystical power of the Eye. As the ties between the Empire, The Great Powers, and The Match-3 Glamorama is a retro-style game of strategy and luck that is set in a Zombie-infested version of the glamorous 80s. Each turn, you'll try to grab as many items as you can, but, beware—each item consists of a group of matching gems. Only by strategically combining your acquired items can you defeat those Zombies lurking around the board. Please note: Match-3 Glamorama is not a zombie simulation game, but rather a strategy game in which you move various items around the game board to match 3 or more. Match-3 Glamorama contains game content that may not be suitable for all audiences, including: bones, gore, and fantastical imagery.
